

GCA and Yongda Certified Tax Agent Announce Strategic Collaboration

30 November 2018

GCA Professional Services Group ("GCA") is pleased to announce that it has entered into a strategic collaboration agreement with Yongda Certified Tax Agent to leverage their respective expertise for offering more comprehensive financial services to local and overseas clients.

GCA is a leading financial services provider with headquarters in Hong Kong offering best-in-class solutions in the areas of asset valuation and management, corporate services, risk management, capital market transaction and mineral & energy consulting services. GreaterChina Professional Services Limited, a member of GCA, is listed on the GEM board of Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The business GCA covers Asia Pacific, Middle East, Europe and America.

GCA has always committed to facilitating Chinese enterprises reaching international market, and has successfully assisted numerous Chinese enterprises in overseas acquisition as well as listing on Hong Kong Stock Exchange such as container terminal operator, mining companies, water treatment companies, the first 'H Share' logistics company, the first 'H Share' nonferrous metals company, the first 'H Share' non-metals material company and the first China real estate REITs.

Since 2012, Yongda Certified Tax Agent has been winning 5A tax office qualification, which is the highest level recognised by the Chinese Certified Tax Agents Association. It is specialised in corporate tax consulting services, including tax planning, advisory on equity structure, tax consulting, tax advisory on equity transfer and corporate restructuring, VAT clearance, mergers and acquisition tax service, tax risk management and control, etc.

With this strategic collaboration, GCA will be able to provide more comprehensive one-stop financial solutions to Chinese enterprises for "going out" to international market.